LIVINGSTONE.

NEW YORK, July 15 .- The Herald's etters from Stanley, giving a history of the meeting with Dr. Lavingstone, and the latter's account of his explorition, say that the Chamrie is the lead waters of the Nile. The stories he Doctor tells of the two countries brough which the great river runs read like a fable. He tells of ivory being so cheap and plentiful as to be used for door-posts, of the skilful nanufacture of fine grass-cloth rivalng that of India; of a people nearly white and extremely handsome, who, meient Egyptian ; of copper mines at Katanga which have been worked for iges, and of a docile and friendly people. Dr. Livingstone and Stanley xplored the head of Lake Tangouyesa and returned to Uiiii, where they peut Christmas of 1871. Stanley says he found Livingstone in a very lestitute condition, robbed and des miled by his men. He looks to be in this one, taken from the "short and mly about fifty, and quite hale and simple annals of the poor."-[N. Y. earty. In March, 1872, he began to rganize an expedition to explore a lew doubtful points, which he thinks will take about eighteen months, when he will return to England. ---
